

Let's talk about

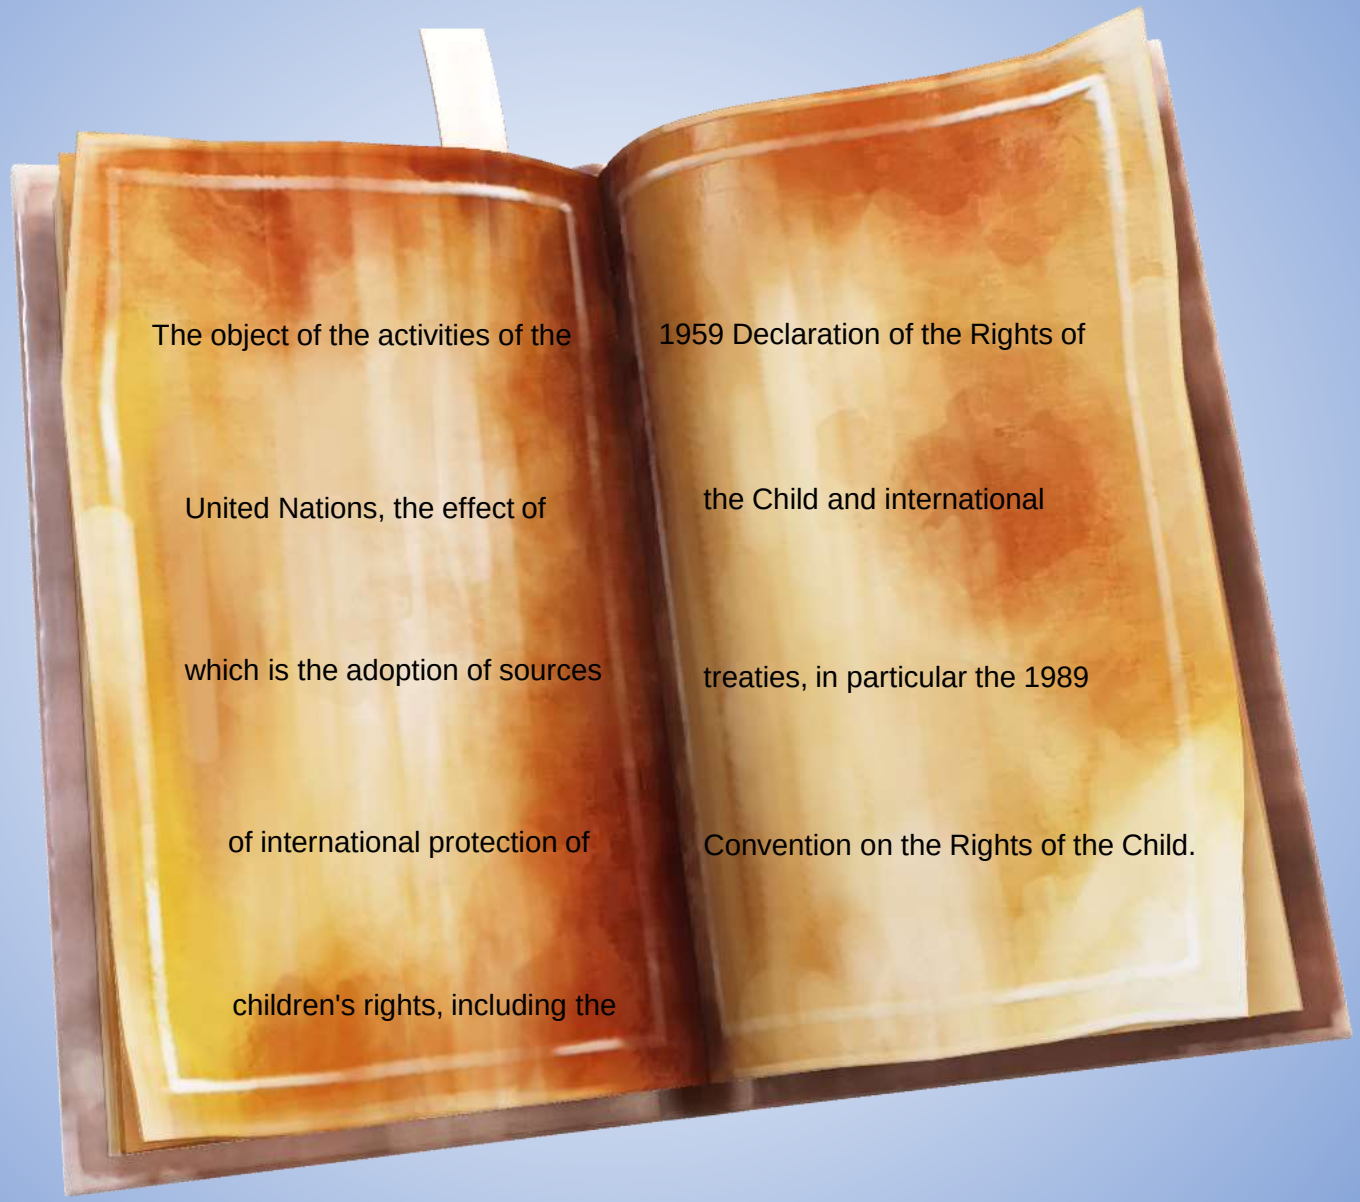

What are the rights of the child?

The object of the activities of the United Nations, the effect of which is the adoption of sources of international protection of children's rights, including the 1959 Declaration of the Rights of the Child and international treaties, in particular the 1989
Convention on the Rights of the Child.

Children's rights include the right to health, education, family life, play and recreation, an adequate standard of living and to be protected from abuse and harm

Not everyone knows this, but children's rights also include:

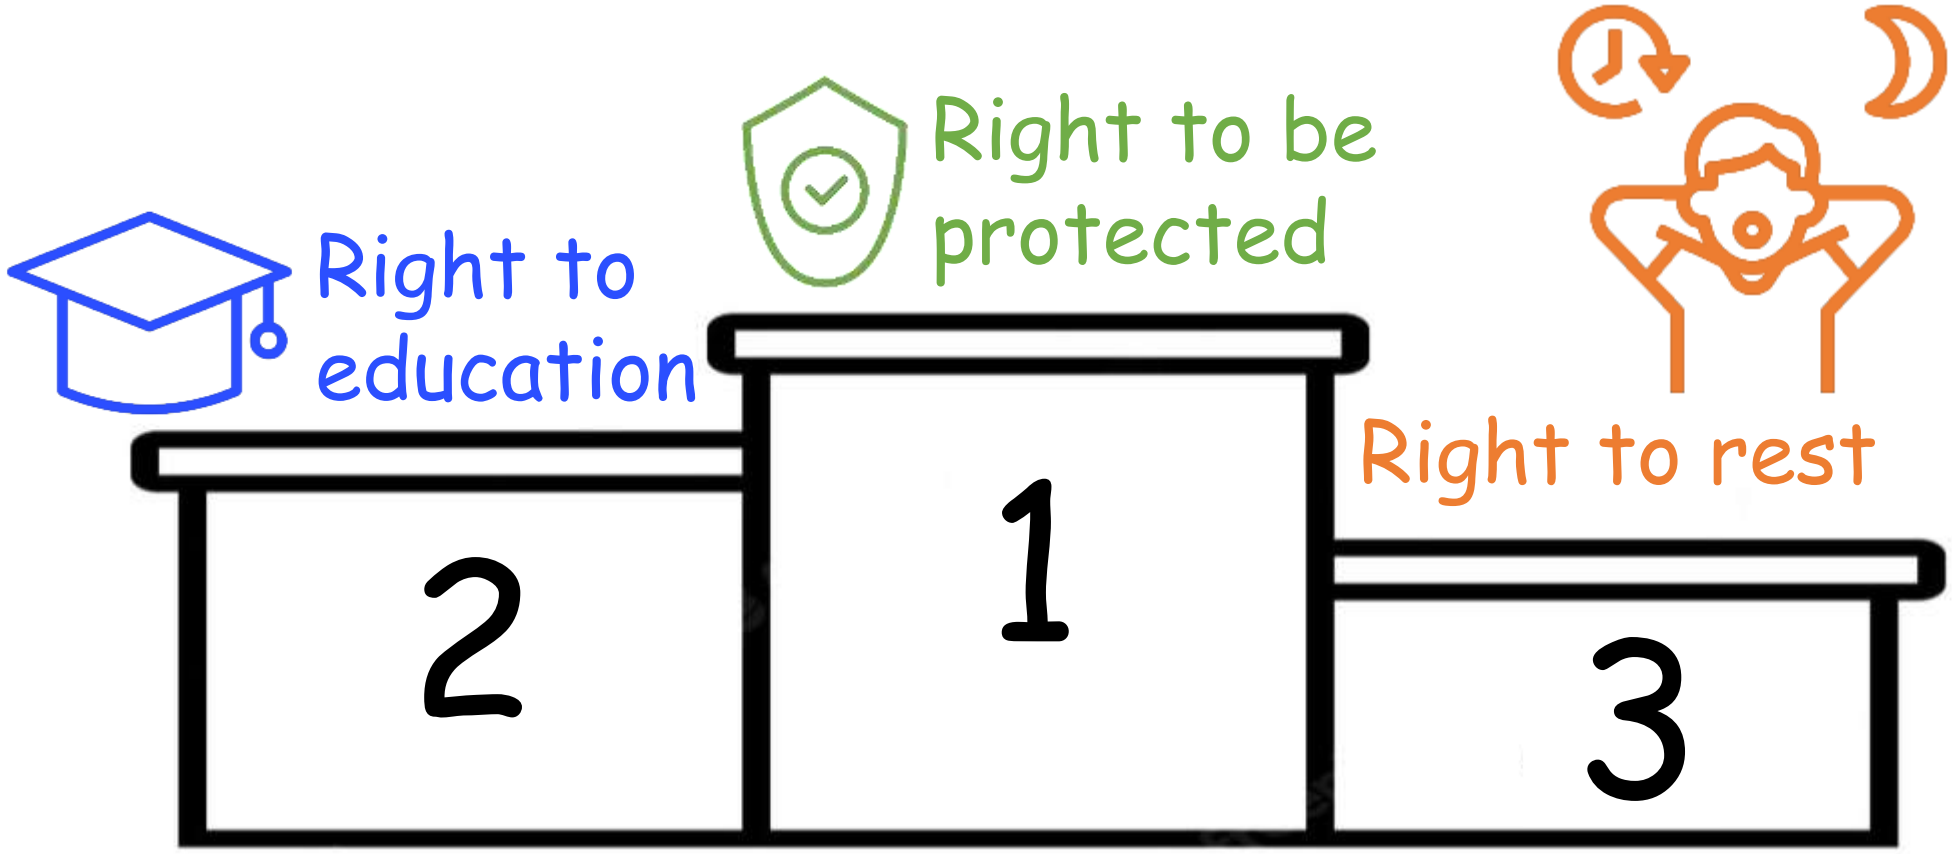

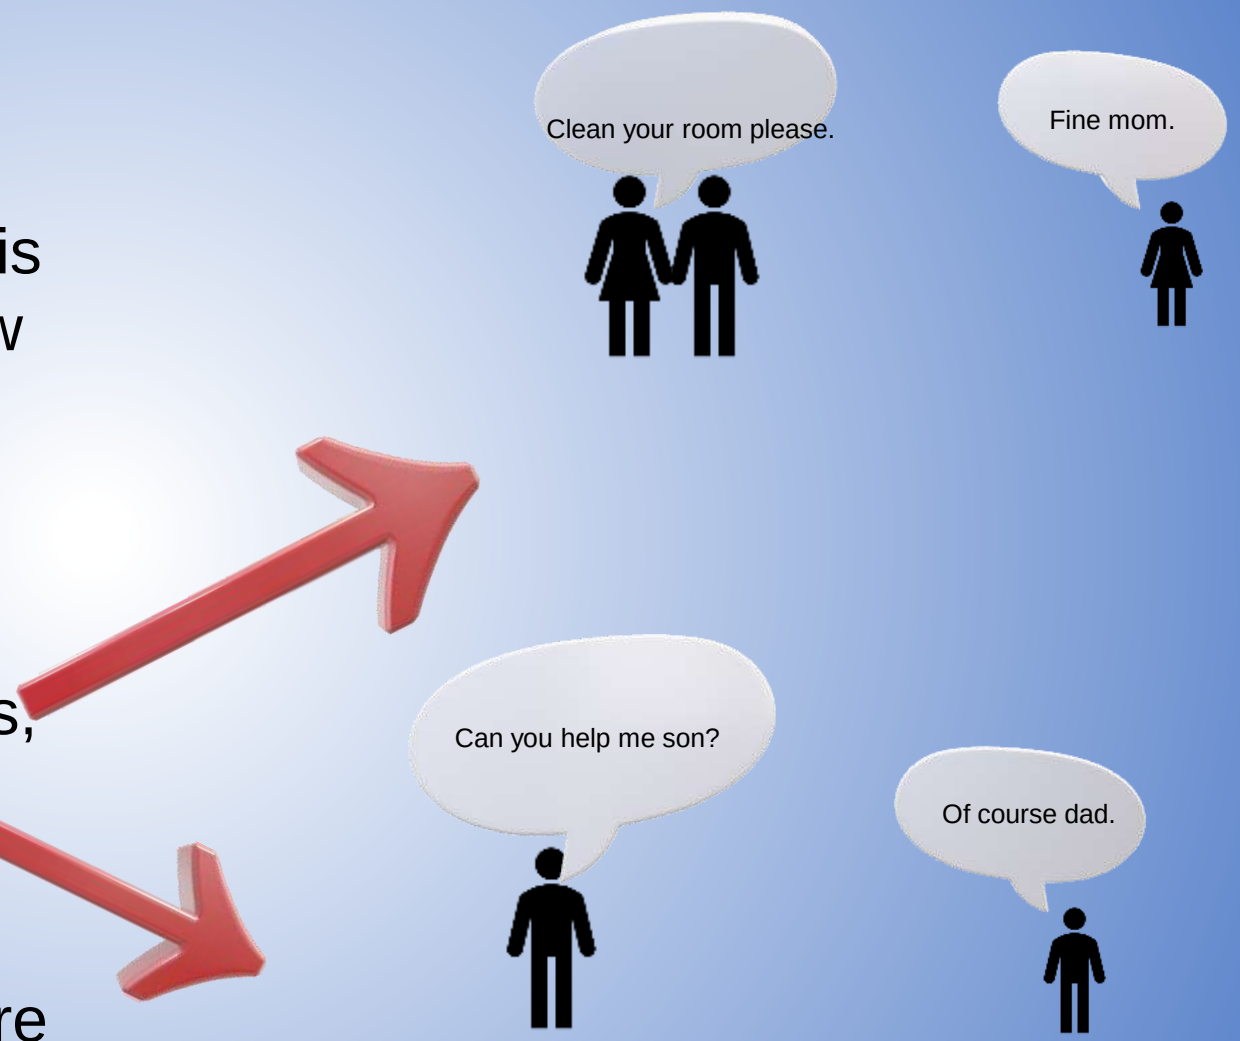

Important rights according to us!

Duties of the child enshrined in the law

The fact that the duties of a child are a contractual thing, depending on how this issue is resolved by his parents, the law also introduces regulations in this matter. In Art. 91 of the Family and Guardianship Code, an obligation was imposed on the child:
-listening to your parents and guardians,
-assistance in the common farm.
Help from the child must correspond to his physical and spiritual strength, and the fulfillment of duties must not interfere with his upbringing and education.

As children, we also have our responsibilities

Duties that students should perform in school:

1. Obey the teachers.
2. Maintain discipline in the class.
3. Keep the school neat.
4. Be helpful.
5. Abide by the rules of the school.
6. Complete the assigned work on time.

Student's responsibilities at school

The student is also obliged to:

1. comply with the provisions of the School Statute.
2. take care of the school's honor and represent it with dignity.
3. respect the emblem, anthem and flag of the school .
4. show respect to all school staff .
5. have and wear a school ID and ID.
6. systematic and active participation in compulsory and additional educational activities.

Let's try to respect each other
